

Mrs. Leavitt's 4th Grade Rules

Teaching time is important. . .

1. Let your teacher teach undisturbed.

Learning time is important. . .

2. Keep yourself on task and follow directions the first time.

Manners are important. . .

3. Treat teachers, helpers, and classmates with respect.

4. I expect you to TRY your HARDEST & DO your BEST!

Consequences:

Negative Consequences:

- Daily Self-Evaluation Behavior Card reflects bad behavior.
(Teacher will also be monitoring behavior)
- Received a behavior warning from teacher
- Time in "Recovery" (Area specifically for misbehaving students to refocus, reform composure, and reinforce positive behavior.)
- Phone call to Parent/Guardian
- Parent/Student/Teacher Conference

Positive Consequences:

- Daily Self-Evaluations Behavior Card reflects good behavior.
(The more well-behaved cards teacher receives, the more Crazy Cash received for end-of-quarter auction)
- Positive Learning Environment
- Teacher-verbal recognition-PRAISE!
- Personal feeling of responsibility toward doing your part as a student in our Caring-Classroom-Community.
